

2026 Leal's Junior Bull Riding, LLC Rules

1. The judges will have the official times during the events. The latch side judge will have the time in case the official buzzer malfunctions.
2. All riders compete one handed and for 8 seconds.
3. Two judges will be used and will score each ride 1-25 for the rider & 1-25 for the stock, then the scores will be added up and this will constitute the score. The score will also serves as the rider's points see example below. The top 15 scores after 2 performances will return for the Short-Go (this number may vary by event but will never be more than 15 or less than 5). A contestant could qualify on one head. Again no more than 10 will return to the short-go, unless there is a tie for the 10th position. Judges decisions are final. We DO NOT have an option of a replay. Parents or other persons approaching, engaging, petitioning, or protesting in any way which is distracting to the judges, arena directors, Leal Jr Bull Riding officials during the event for any reason, their child will be disqualified for that event and subject to further suspensions or disciplinary action. Example: 1st ride 68 pts, 2nd ride 70 pts going into the short go the rider would have 138 pts.
4. Bull that is drawn, but becomes sick at event, injured, or mistakenly not on trailer the contestant stock will become the first re-ride. Contestants with re-rides do not draw from re-ride bulls, it goes down the list of the order the re-rides were given.
 - A) All bulls will need to be tipped to the size of a half dollar.
5. All stock will be flanked. There will be no using of the hot shot or any harmful object prior to the ride. It is also the responsibility of the contestant to make sure he or she is competing on the correct head of stock. Competing on the incorrect stock will result in disqualification on that ride. No handheld device or hotshot can be used in the bucking chute. Stock Contractor can't re-flank bull unless directed by a judge or director.
6. In the event of a tie a coin will be tossed to determine who takes home the buckle.
7. Stock will be drawn before the bull riding starts or days before the bull riding event. Contestants will not compete on same head of stock in any performance that he/she has drawn previously, this doesn't include re-rides contestants could draw the same animal. Some events contestants could have the privilege of drawing their bull from a hat and poker chip. Draw can be drawn by just 1 LJBR judge or 1 LJBR staff member.
8. No unauthorized personnel will be allowed into the secretary area PERIOD until the sheets have been tallied for that event. This will help to eliminate the possibility of errors, as we want each rider to get the most accurate count.
9. Contestant will have 30 seconds to call for their animal once the gate men get to them. The judge will have a stop watch and keep times. It will be at the back judge's discretion if the contestant is being given a fair shot by the animal. Riders need to have their ropes on and be ready to go when the rider in front of them goes.
 - A) At the judge's discretion will determine when rider could be put on the clock. Judge will give warning
